Power lines go left and right
Sometimes I wonder if this city's just a maze
And I'm lost in it
Lately it's green to red
And I just can't stop thinking bout
What you said

I don't wanna let you go
But you need to learn to fly
I just wanna let you know
You only have one life to try to find out
What it means to be alive
I hope you find your home

I keep hoping somethings up your sleeve
You gotta give me something
To birth some belief
Lately it's hard for me to sleep
You know it's funny
When I'm awake
I feel like I'm dreaming, dreaming

I don't wanna let you go
But you need to learn to fly
I just wanna let you know
You only have one life to try to find out
What it means to be alive
I hope you find your home

Don't you block out the sun
Don't you block out the sunshine[x2]

I don't wanna let you go
But you need to learn to fly
I just wanna let you know
You only have one life to try to find out
What it means to be alive
I hope you find your home

Don't waste a lifetime just to know
So please come home
