Castaway Lyrics
a summer lost
oceans still left to cross
cast away
on a moment

a friendly word
whispered left unheard
on a shelf
out of mind and out of reaching

a change in me
a change in you
funny how fragile change is

seasons rise
seasons fall

pass me by ocean left to cry
no one knows
where the hurt is
a hidden smile

i know I'll be alright
the sun will shine
close my eyes and feel u breathing

change in me
change in you
funny how fragile change is

seasons rise
seasons fall
