My Lord started a fire but it hurts to hold it out.
And I can't deny the flame when my hearts wants me to doubt.

Sometimes in confusion I choose to lose my way.
But never beyond His faithful grip when I can hear Him say,
Come Home...

There's a thousand reasons why I can justify my ways.
A temporary refuge where I hide but never stay.

Nothing is accomplished when I'm busy building walls.
Yet nothing but acceptance lights the way when Daddy calls!
(Saying)

Come home son - So many a night my tears brought
you the rain
Come home son - It hurt so much but you are worth the pain.
Come home son - I have so many things to give to you.

Come home son - Today we start. Today all things are new
If you just come home...

I hold eternal fire that the world cannot put out
And it burns away desire to accept a life of doubt.

To find the world is sacrificed on an altar of vanity,
Draws me to my Father's arms where He longs for me to be.

Come home son - So many a night my tears brought
you the rain
Come home son - It hurt so much but you are worth the pain.
Come home son - I have so many things to give to you.
Come home son - Today we start. Today all things are
new
If you just come home again.
