Another day
Without you here
All the pain
You hide my dear

Fills my head
With all that could've been
I was wrong back then

It's too late to take it away
Now that you're gone
I'll take the hurt and the shame
And leave you strong

Please forgive me

Regret it every day
With every breath I take
I could feel you
Breaking down from it all

Forget the misery
Remember this when you breathe
You're everything I never was

Sold my soul
And lost myself
The chemicals
Took me far from myself

One regret
One mistake
Never meant to brake
A heart that's beautiful

It's too late to take it away
Now that I'm gone
I'll take the hurt and the shame
And leave you strong

Please forgive me

Regret it everyday
With every breath I take
I can feel you breaking down from it all

Forget the misery
Remember this when you breathe
You're everything I never was

Back to you
I'll come
Just to hold you, feel you
It's been too long

I'll be the one
To catch you when you fall

Regret it everyday
With every breath I take
I can feel you breaking down from it all

Forget the misery

Regret it everyday
With every breath that I take
I can feel you breaking down from it all

Forget the misery
You're everything I never was
You're everything I never was
You're everything I never was...
