Pre>e g#m

Sometime's I feel that the world isn't mine

C#m f b

It feeds on my hunger and tears on my time

E

And I'm tired,

C#m

Yes, I'm tired

E g#m

Every face on the street is as cold the air

C#m f b

As hard as the pavement moves 'neath my feet

And I'm tired,

C#m

Yes, I'm tired

C#m b

Sometimes I stop and ask to myself

C#m b c#m

Oh why should I be so alone

C#m

It comes and it goes

B

And nobody knows

C#m b c#m

For they're blind with a pain all their own

E g#m

So I start out again with a smile on my face

C#m f b

To hide all the empty and search for a friend

And I'm tired

C#m

Yes, I'm tired

C#m b

Sometimes I stop and ask to myself

C#m b c#m

Oh why should I be so alone

C#m

It comes and it goes

And nobody knows
C#m b c#m
For they're blind with a pain all their own
E g#m
So I start out again with a smile on my face
C#m f b
To hide all the empty and search for a friend
And I'm tired
C#m
Yes, I'm tired
And I'm tired
C#m
Yes, I'm tired
