listen to me,
but don't hear a word,
speak to me please,
get beneath what is hurt.
break what you bend,
deliver the sting.
build up again,
then cut loose the string.
just drive your nails,
beneath my skin,
pain tips the seals,
where love begins.
(chorus) if love is believing,
then i'm in deep,
if wanting is needing,
you're all i need.
i am a killer,
a liar a thief,
but love is a healer,
and forever a dream.
i push my sloes,
into the ground,
as i feel the heavens,
sinking down.
(chorus)
