It was You
That showed me who I am
And taught me how to stand
For what I know is real

I was sick of all the pain
Tired of all the shame that I felt
But You showed me a way

To never have a doubt
And always to believe in myself
Now I see

It was You
That showed me who I am
And taught me how to stand
For what I know is real

Now I'm breathing for the first time
And I'm leaving all this behind
I've become what I am because of You
It was You

I'm so sorry 'bout the ways
But I can't take away my past
But You love me anyway

And now I wanna do
Everything for You that I can
Even though it won't erase

The foolish things that I've done
Things that blinded me

But now I see

It was You
That showed me who I am
And taught me how to stand
For what I know is real

Now I'm breathing for the first time

And I'm leaving all this behind
And I'll stand for what I know is real

So how can I make this up to You?
I'll fight and I'll push and I'll strive
Now that I living my life for You

I'll fight and I'll push and I'll strive
Can't You see?

It was You
That showed me who I am
And taught me how to stand
For what I know is real

Now I'm breathing for the first time
And I'm leaving all this behind
I've become what I am because of You
(It was You)

I can see the writing on the wall
As time begins to crawl away from me
And I've become what I am because of You
It was You
