I never bother anybody. i stick myself and keep my eyes set straight. won't be the one to bring you down. cause it just wouldn't make me feel too great. some people crave too much drama. caused by someone, something, all for what? a psychological trauma. without a choice, sometimes that's all you've got. wo oh oh, change my ways, yeah i'm still trying. wo oh oh, it ain't easy, but i'm not crying. wo oh oh, change my plans and my directions. wo oh oh, gotta change the key that makes this person me. i've learned that patience is better. i take a breath and count real slow to ten. why don't we try it together? we'll make mistakes, get up and start again. don't feel a need to be violent. i'm working with this rage inside of me. and i will never be silenced. i'll try and use this rage to set me free. wo oh oh, change my ways, yeah i'm still trying. wo oh oh, it ain't easy, but i'm not crying. wo oh oh, change my plans and my directions. wo oh oh, gotta change the key that makes this person me. wo oh oh, change my ways, yeah i'm still trying. wo oh oh, it ain't easy, but i'm not crying. wo oh oh, change my plans and my directions. wo oh oh, gotta change the key that makes this person me.
