You live your life on the internet. that's where you are day and night. you talk you shit from behind that net.
where you're safely out of sight. i think it's bad, yeah it seems so sad. cause now we hardly ever talk. you try replacing the human face with the one living in a box. why don't you go to a real life show. it's something that you won't regret. you'd rather be on the irc and stuck inside your safety net. it shouldn't be so damned destructive. why not share some info, insight? you're way too caught up in the gossip. you'd rather talk shit every night. i think it's bad, yeah it seems so sad. cause now we hardly ever talk. you try replacing the human face with the one living in a box. why don't you go to a real life show. it's something that you won't regret. you'd rather be on the irc and stuck inside your safety net.
