I guess the others turned their backs on what they now
call shit,
It doesn't really matter 'cause it's their words I forget, If 'core is dead, they've moved along and now they're rockin' out,
But I have doubts they ever knew just what it's been about

[Chorus]

But I still believe, I still believe, believe in myself [2x]

Watch them bite and clw now as they line up on the rack,
A method to success and now there ain't no looking back, They're playing better music with a message aimed at other crowds,
And they don't include a lyrics sheet 'cause what they say ain't proud

[Chorus]

An empty pedatal and all these "heroes," where'd they, go! go! go!
When I find myself a hero, I'll be sure to let you know
