You ask me if it feels the same, wo oh oh. you wonder if it feels alright, wo oh oh. i ask myself that every day, wo oh oh. sometimes i feel so far away. i never will forget it, and i will not regret it. 10 years from this day forward, wo oh. i'll try to keep my head up, fall down but i'll still get up. forever deep inside me, wo oh oh oh. no matter what it's everybody's fight! you wanna know how it compares, wo oh oh. this old school, new school stuff, who cares? wo oh oh. it's great to let your true roots show, wo oh oh. you have to let those true roots grow. i never will forget it, and i will not regret it. 10 years from this day forward, wo oh. i'll try to keep my head up, fall down but i'll still get up. forever deep inside me, wo oh oh oh. no matter what it's everybody's fight! i never will forget it, and i will not regret it. 10 years from this day forward, wo oh. i'll try to keep my head up, fall down but i'll still get up. forever deep inside me, wo oh oh oh. no matter what it's everybody's fight!
