Please give me a second of your time
I'm not going to preach or place the blame on anyone
I hope you know how grateful that I am to you
So many have stay long, carried on
The others have given up the life, hey that's OK Cuz here we are, we're here for good, we're here to stay

[Chorus:]

This is your parent's, this is your parent's
This is your parent's hardcore! Hardcore!
This is your parent's, this is your parent's
This is your parent's hardcore! Hardcore!

Nobody here's perfect, we've got flaws
I'm probably a bigger fuck-up than you'll ever be
And yet we get through life together, peacefully
Don't call it a comeback, cuz it's not Been here for years and chances are, we're staying put
You do your best but you cannot re-write the book
