What's the reason why Da Vinci had to paint
Lennon had to write about peace
Martin had a dream, Patsy had to sing?
Where did Mozart find those melodies?

We all need inspiration, a spark that ignites
Something deep inside the soul
A masterpiece that defines a life
And you are mine, you are mine

Just to see your face calms the storm in me
Makes me see the world a little differently

Yeah, we all need inspiration, a spark that ignites
Something deep inside the soul
A masterpiece that defines a life
And you are mine, yeah you are mine

We all need inspiration, a spark that ignites
Something deep inside the soul
A masterpiece that defines a life
And you are mine, yeah you are mine
(And you are mine and you are mine)
(And you are mine and you are mine)

You are mine
(And you are mine and you are mine)
You are mine
(And you are mine and you are mine)

(And you are mine and you are mine)
(And you are mine and you are mine)
You are mine
Yes, you are a masterpiece

And you are mine and you are mine
And you are mine and you are mine
And you are mine and you are mine
And you are mine and you are mine

And you are mine and you are mine
And you are mine and you are mine

And you are mine and you are mine
