Life Ooh, life, Ooh yeah
One day you're up high, you're flying through the sky Got a peaceful mind and everything is all right Next minute you're face down in it And then there's just no winning no relief in sight Aww Life

It's the middle of the summer and you're floating on a river
Got a beer got your girl and you get a big kiss gotta say, it doesn't get better better than the good Lord on a day like this Aww

Life, life, life
It's wild and wonderful Life life life
ooh baby you and me we're gonna drink it all up Make a lot of love and have a little fun called life yeah you gotta love life

There's a man and a woman in the middle of the night one last push and a baby cries they look at each other they're a daddy and a mother And they take a first look in their baby's eyes Life

Look at that now my great grandma 93 years old she had a wild ride but her time had come she took me by the hand and said dying's part of living boy you better live it up before it's gone now

Life, life woah Let's celebrate it honey it don't last long cmon baby put your party boots on yeah life woah yeah

hey baby come take my hand let me take you to the Promised Land Ooh life life life

woah life life yea yea yea you gotta love life woah yeah you gotta love life Hey yea you gotta love life
