I'll build a cage around myself
I won't let any feelings out
The outside world can go to hell
They don't know what I'm all about

And I'm so angry I can taste
The blood that runs through my veins
She says my life is a waste
And I've got nothing more to gain

Feels like a war zone in this house
I'm only trying to be myself
Feels like a war zone, Feels like a war zone

I will fight you every step of the way
I'll deny you, you will not stand in my way
I will fight you every step of the way
Every single day

It tries and tests me every day
But still this feeling stays the same
I cannot live any other way
This is not just a passing game

Feels like a war zone in this house
I need to find my own way out
Feels like a war zone here
