"The Other Side"

Visit "The Other Side" on MotoLyrics.com

Death's cold touch left behind in a corpse no longer me
Voyage into the unknown to a certain destiny
On through the sea of time, the void of endless time
A dimension so unreal
Beyond infinity, lies the key, that only the one can reveal

Ch.
Could the end be the beginning
The whirligig of time an endless ring
Could death be re-entry
The threshold to eternity

Travel through visions and dreams, a world of mystery

The riddle of the hereafter is now unveiled to me
Attracted towards a light, pure and bright,
The tunnel's end is drawing near Here on his demand, guided by his hand,
Salvation burns away my fear

Ch.

Before I reach the tunnel's end
A voice sounds crystal clear
Stop your time's not come my son
And I wake up where have I been
The place where I have been, the things that I have seen
