Close my eyes, I'm trying to listen
Oh cuz it's been so long since I've heard you speak
Send your love, cover over the distance
Between You and me

Oh how long must I wait for my love
Cuz I need You oh I need You
My heart is bursting and breaking apart
For my love, ha

Come on and blind my eyes, I'm looking to heaven
Holding all Your promises against my chest
I offer up the life I've been given
Till my last breath

Oh how long must I wait for my love
Cuz I need You oh I need You
My heart is bursting and breaking apart
For my love

Your coming is as sure as the sun is rising
Here comes the day it's breaking in my heart
Your children are running to you

Your coming is as sure as the sun is rising
Here comes the day it's breaking in my heart
Your children are running to you

Oooo, yeah

Oh how long must I wait for my love
Cuz I need You oh I need You
My heart is bursting and breaking apart
For my love
