not every day in my life has been a good one,
not every day in my life has been bad.
iâ€™m rollercoastinâ€™through emotions every second,
from fine to fukked up and bakk again.
one day iâ€™m happy and the next day iâ€™m not.
i think thatâ€™s normal, as long as it is mixed up.
how else should i know what happiness is,
if i never felt sad before and iâ€™d never been pissed.
one feeling is the consequence of the opposite feeling.
that means, that i got to deal with the days, when everything seems to go wrong,
as also the days that are stuffed with lovesongs.
believe me, after the rain, there comes the sun.
itâ€™s always been like that, life cannot be just fun.
so be prepared for the days you run around with a frown... and for days like that, i tell you something like...donâ€™t look down .

donâ€™t look down - if ya stressed out and wanna give up.
donâ€™t look down - if ya worked hard but someone elseâ€™s on top donâ€™t look down ifâ€™ya boss makes you angry... itâ€™s how it is, even if itâ€™s not how it should be.

donâ€™t look down - if your whole day looks like shit.
donâ€™t look down - if you donâ€™t like your relationship.
donâ€™t look down - if you dream about things youâ€™ll never see... itâ€™s how it is, even if itâ€™s not how it should be.

iâ€™ve been with a girl for a very long time, too long, i guess!,
cuz the relationship ment nothing but stress.
i had the band and she did her work... so she left me... i cannot say how much i got hurt. i ran around,
was drinkinâ€™every bottle that i found. broken hearted, and alone and down to the ground. i hated her for what she did,
but i forgive her now.... my friends told me to go out,
dance somehow, i met this girl she was blazinâ€™!

she knocked me out from day one and our friendship was amazing!
bad turned to good and i gotta thank that stupid cow
for leaving me,
cuz misses right iâ€™m datin til now...

donâ€™t look down - if your girl is cheatinâ€™ on you.
donâ€™t look down - if ya down and you donâ€™t know what to do.
donâ€™t look down - if you donâ€™t find a way outta your misery.
itâ€™s how it is, even if its not how it should be.

donâ€™t look down - if your whole life seems to sukk.
donâ€™t look down - if you want attention but noone gives a fukk.
donâ€™t look down - if you cannot be what you try to be,
itâ€™s how it is,
even if itâ€™s not how it should be!
