leave me alone now

he doesn't sleep he doesn't eat all he needs is electricity he's the good the bad and the ugly in me he doesn't speak and he doesn't lough he just wants to take everything I have he got me twistin' and turnin' whistling and burning you heard me?

he is the sickness in person he is my gift and my curse I can't run from my evil twin no he's up to no good out to bring pain pumps his evil thoughts straight into my veins steps on my toes tortures my brain until I go down insane

I am the one and only reason for that what you are he wants me to move when he comes through he wants me to dance for you he's the one that makes you love me and you love me don't you love me? he scratches with my nails and my will in my skin

I can't run from my evil twin no I'm the darkest thought you can think and most dangerous poison to drink I am something that you can't murder won't you .. why .. why won't you...
