I can't spare a moment on the dog faced boy
I won't lend him another hand to the worm girl of Hanoi
Don't deplete my oxygen for the guy who's turning blue
But ask me and I'll do anything for you

Whenever I think of you, it only makes me feel sad Whenever I think of you, the best friend I ever had Before I gave it up all for nothing
Well, I lied and I cheated

And it made me feel bad
It made me feel guilty for not being true
Oh, the months I spend trying for a way to explain
In the end all I could do was turn my head in shame

Whenever I think of you, oh darlin', it only makes me feel sad
'Cause you deserve better and once I was it
Somehow my good intentions just got up and git

So I can't spare a moment on the dog faced boy
I won't lend him another hand to the worm girl of Hanoi
Don't deplete my oxygen for the guy who's turning blue
But ask me and I'll do anything for you
