theres a mouse starin out of the window his car is trapped in the snow hes planning a family vacation but he just cant go around the next corner's a red bird trashed buy some gunslinging parrot whos jealous he aint got no grin there aint no time to stash the gumbo or rattle around in a cage the sacrificed child's made bubbles his spittle is everywhere in rage in a hot sand, i ran on my feet, they blistered and caked with debris Cez Rolez's guarding the tope board while annngry piddles with glee the fool writing [notes] on samdpaper hes giving them all to himself he sends them a couple days later puts them along his top shelf if people get tired of shavings and carve up a good hunk of wood remembering to check on the sausage hes got cooking somewhere look good
