Half the world is filthy poor, living off US$2.00 a day.
Economic strangulation, the american way.
Have you ever wondered why? Have you ever stopped to try?
How did we get this gap between the rich and poor?
We control the factories, and the raw materials.
The world is our, let's trash this place!
It's our manifest destiny.
Strangle! -Your consumer ways
Strangle! -All your gluttony
Strangle! --Have you ever wondered why? Have you ever stopped to try?
How did we get this gap between the rich and poor?
We control the factories, and the raw materials.
The world is our, let's trash this place!
It's our manifest destiny.
Strangle! -Your consumer ways
Strangle! -All your gluttony
Strangle! -Your polluted ways
Strangle! -All your apathy
We'll climb out of the third world ghetto, we'll climb out of the Factories.
We'll slither up rivers you pollute, we'll smash out of your sweatshop
Labor.
Let's go down and strangulate them...
