

Quit sleeping my dear
Clear up your mind and heart
These dreams will disappear
With new blood
You've traveled to places unseen

We never knew where you've been We'll never know where you've been

Your world is turning round
Pipe dreams will make you stay
The secret's always found
As puff drifts away

A neverending day
Where everything you feel
Will make you fall astray

Forgetting what is real

You've lost your way!
You've lost your mind!

Open your eyes
Stop thinking it's okay
Cause you have lost your way
Under the purple skies
Open your mind
It's eating you from the inside

All the colors will make you go blind
In the fake place where you used to hide
