Lashes out again
Silently I can't keep from caving in
The truth is I always wanted to be the one
That you could confide in
As I hear the sound, of a voice
Telling me not so loud
As I hear the sound

Suddenly I'm so different
I'm so different from you [x2]

I dream for hours on end
About a life I could never believe in Betrayed by what you would say
It comes around again
I pay no mind for something I just cannot hide
As I hear that sound, as I hear that sound
Telling me
Suddenly I'm so different
I'm so different from you [x2]

Devils be the ones
Tells me I've nothing to loose if I'm falling
Before I cave I want you to know
You did this to me

Suddenly I'm so different
I'm so different from you [x2]

But I realize the difference is you [x2]
