Win or lose, this is my game to play
Right or wrong, I'll play it my way
And if I make mistakes
It's my own heart that breaks
I've got to find my own way of life, myself alone

I only have one life to live
I only have one love to give
No matter what he is, he touches me and makes me his
Now we're in love

I only have one life to live
And I'm gonna live it
I only have one love to give
And I'm gonna give it
No matter what he is, he touches me and makes me his
Now we're in love

I don't know what changes time may bring
But right now, there's today's the important thing
Together come what may
We'll welcome each new day
With love to be our guiding light, to make it through tomorrow

I only have one life to live
And I'm gonna live it
I only have one love to give
And I'm gonna give it
No matter what he is, he touches me and makes me his
I know I'm his and he is mine
I know I'm his and he is mine...
