There's your picture, hanging on the wall
And my heart cries out to know that you were wrong

Does it have to be there, still hanging
Hanging on the wall?
Does it have to be there, still hanging
Hanging on the wall?

People said I'm a fool to say goodbye to you
But believe me, your picture's still hanging on the wall

Does it have to be there, still hanging
Hanging on the wall?
Does it have to be there, still hanging
Hanging on the wall?

As I watch you walk out the door
And my cries out knowing you were gone
Does it have to be there, still hanging
Hanging on the wall?

People said I'm a fool to say goodbye to you
But believe me, your picture's still hanging on the wall
Does it have to be there, still hanging
Hanging on the wall?

Baby, why is your picture still hanging
Hanging on the wall
I want to know, why is your picture still
Hanging on the wall
