Open my eyes to see a brand new day again
then i went on my knees just to praise Your Name

chorus:
You make me see the morning star, the lily in the valley
even when i close my eyes, I see You..... so I climbed the mountain high, where nobody can find me... now I spread my wings and fly
I feel You...

I feel You (x2)
I feel You within my ul
I feel You (x3)

Tell me,
who you gonna praise for waking in the morning?
who you gonna praise for going out and coming?
who you gonna praise at the end of the day?
as for me, it's definitely gonna be Him He's the only one who fights for me, The only one who sent His only begotten Son to die for me,
and He set me free from my enemies, how do I praise His Name?
I believe in Jesus and that's my scissors, all my pain and sorrows He cut to pieces even when you're down, your enemies around, He will cut to pieces
say, I have won,
If you really believe in Him, you have won
so you gonna do what....
praise the Lord

say, I have won,
If you really believe in Him, you have won
so you gonna do what...
praise the Lord

Bit of Your Love for me, it's more than what I desire every day joy in my heart fulfilled, when I praise Your Name...

Chorus

Now..... Now I feel that I could fly Now..... fly so high...
Now..... now I feel that I could soar Now.....
Open my eyes to see.
