D'you remember when
We were talking as good friends
Where are you now?
You are in doubt

While you talk of growing old
Your touch is getting cold
Don't make a sound
You're breathing loud

All your talk is cheap
I'm just thinking you are weak
Where are you now?
I'm learning how

To get you anywhere
Without asking you to share
Come on you cheat
Well cheat on me!

The clouds on your head
Make you feeling happy instead
But you're a slave
In their arms

The clouds on your head
Make you feelin' happy instead
But you're a slave
While I'm gone

And we'd never write the songs
For the ones who'd never listen
And we'd never write the songs
