Caution,
It's something that we rarely use
So when we trip and fall we're left with no excuse
Every so often,
I find myself someone like you
But somehow those three words they start to sound true

But if we think twice,
Then maybe we'll realize
Love can only break your heart
I'm trying to save your life,
By giving you my own advice
But if I can't make you stop
And we'll have to be cautious

You know it's so easy
Living in the state we're in
To look the other way like nothing's happened
I can see it in your eyes
I can tell by just the way you talk
That we're on the verge of something very dangerous

But if we think twice,
Then maybe we'll realize
Love can only break your heart
I'm trying to save your life,
By giving you my own advice
But if I can't make this stop
We'll have to be cautious

Caution
But if we think twice,
Then maybe we'll realize
Love can only break your heart
I'm trying to save your life,
By giving you my own advice
But if I can't make you stop
We'll have to be cautious
Cautious, to be cautious.

Love can only break your heart
