Sometimes you never know exactly where you're supposed to be
And open doors may close then you won't find out where they lead
I was headed to your place just the other day at the hotel where you stay
On the way up to your room I thought to myself "What am I getting into?"

Because I think I'm falling, falling for you now
But I've got to know more before your doors swing out

I fell into a room full of confetti and balloons
And it appeared to me like it was midnight on New Year's Eve
Well lipstick and champagne was just your way to say
You won't ever let me leave
Hang a note up on the door then throw away the key

Because I think I'm falling, falling for you now
But I want to know more before your doors swing out
And let me in your world
Still, I think that you could be the one for me yeah

My closed mind has a slip
But technically most of the time
So I must admit you turned out to be a pleasant surprise
So open wide Let me in

Then the sun will set on this state of mind
Tomorrow I'll find Another open door to pour myself into
And into you, I'm so into you

Because I think I'm falling, falling for you now
But I want to know more before your doors swing out
And let me in your world
Still, I think that you could be the one for me

Because I think I'm falling, falling for you now
But I want to know more before your doors swing out
Let me in your world
Still, I think that you could be the one for me
