so long darlin' was lovely to know ya every now and then I still wanna go ya I couldn't shine like that rock in the window you traded me in for not even real gold was gonna write a love letter and show ya was gonna pay back the money I owed ya now that you're naked maybe I could be tempted was gonna say yes, but the I remembered you sold me for something better you sold me for next to nothing you sold me for imitation gold now it looks like the end of the road
