Everyone in here says there's something weird about
you well that's alright by me, originality, it designed you, for me
And if you lead the way, I spend some time I've saved, if you do Cos I don't want to do rock 'n' roll with anybody else but you

I've read your print that's fine, and signed the dotted line, a done deal And take me back, and keep me in your stash, I'm a steal
Well you've never had enough, unless you've had too much'
And finding out what's I'm about, much more of you too touch
And everybody wants to know but it's only meant for me and you Cos I don't want to rock 'n' roll with anybody else but
you

If you think that somehow you are wasting my time At night you shine your light it really scrambles my mind
And everybody wants to know it's only meant for me and you
Cos I don't want to rock 'n' roll with anybody else but
you

No need to speak I've said it all You keep me walking ten feet tall
I don't want anyone but you
