come and see the morning do you wanna see the daylight you can be anything and anybody you like
I don't wanna be alone
bringing in a new day so come with me little one we'll turn over a new page we're all going to a party under the moon tonight we're gonna wake up anybody not outside singing Auld Lang Syne

it's been a long hard year looking for a glory
the lines on your forehead tell a better story
so come and have a good time put a little on your gum don't you wanna see the daylight
we're gonna wake up anybody not outside

but that's another day now so go and tell everyone there's gonna be a hoe-down the sky's gonna glow red a little after midnight come with me little one
we're gonna wake up anybody not outside
