(Browne/Glenister)

So nonchalant

Hoping to find

Stories you hear

Taught to you in your mind

There's life to be lived

Days to be tasted

Gifts to be gived

Not to be wasted

Where are you now

I'm so far gone

Here in this light

That made me go blind

The sun's in my eyes

There's clouds in my mind

There's life to be lived

Days to be tasted

Not to be wasted

Where are you now ?

You're so far gone..

chorus

Here in the same boat that I've always been in

Don't wanna be suddenly

Here in the same boat that I've always been in

Don't wanna be suddenly

There

There's life to be lived

Days to be tasted

Gifts to be gived

Not to be wasted

Time is a friend

friend, you can't chase it

Chase it away, looking forgiveness

Where are you now ?

I'm so far gone...
