Got to get back to the world you know.
Take it or leave it from me with time on my side.
You wouldn't last for a minute.
Buddy shut up cause you're in it.
Nothing to do, nowhere to go.
If you complete all the tasks what's left to do?
When you are just trying to get there don't forget about getting there.
There's a finishing touch which hasn't happened lately.
Wisely and slow stumbling upon fast.
Fixing always ends in disrepair.
Puh-puh-planning only sometimes works.
You can say what's obvious or move on from there.
Who makes up the rules in your rule book?
There's chocolate that's thicker than you!
Create the revenge and make sure that you hit the mark.
If you want it it's yours - just replace all that you use.
Meow-meow-meow-meow, shake the shaken.
Maybe it's time for better words.
Why don't you stand over there?
Hands to yourself.
No one likes not their hands in their pockets.
There will always be monks and monkeys.
Gotta get your hands on something.
