Remember days when I believed but just did not know how

It seems I never knew why - it seems I never knew why
And all the answers well they, they are much clearer
Now

It seems I never knew why - it seems I never knew why
All the times when I would learn but never get to know
It seems I never knew why - it seems I never knew why
Still I'd carelessly believe that I was all alone
It seems I never knew why - it seems

It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again
It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again

I'm glad my friends I'm glad I'm on the other side now
My friends I'm glad I'm on the other side
I'm glad my friends I'm glad I'm on the other side now
My friends I'm glad

And if you understood then, understand me now
It seems I never knew why - it seems I never knew why
Not for a moment did I ever have a single doubt

It seems I never knew why - it seems I never knew why
When all the memories they just turn around and re-
Appear
It seems I never knew why - it seems I never knew why
It's only happiness and happiness is all we fear
It seems I never knew why - it seems

It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again
It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again

I'm glad my friends I'm glad I'm on the other side now
My friends I'm glad I'm on the other side
I'm glad my friends I'm glad I'm on the other side now
My friends I'm glad

It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again
It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again
It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again
It feels good - it feels good to stand up on my own
Again
