I will give you my heart
Keep us falling apart
But you don't need it

If you just call my name
It would drive me insane
But you don't need it

And things are moving much too fast

You have me come and go
And I just don't know where I stand
How could you think about me
When you're with another man?
Oh you don't need it

I stayed up half the night
Still I just couldn't write
And I don't need it

All I wanted was sleep
But I knew that that could keep
And I don't need it

Things are moving much too slow

You have me come and go
And I just don't know where I stand
How could you think about me
When you're with another man?
Oh you don't need it

And things are moving much too slow
Still you will

Have me come and go
And I just don't know where I stand
How could you think about me
When you're with another man?
Oh you don't need it

I will close down my heart
If we're falling apart
'Cause you don't need it

I won't give you a call
Won't do anything at all
'Cause you don't need it

And things are moving nowhere now
Still you will

Have me come and go
And I just don't know where I stand
How could you think about me
When you're with another man?
You have me come and go
And I just don't know where I stand
How could you think about me
When you're with another man?
Oh you don't need it
