"Alone"

Lying in a wiped out park

With silver screams from the dark

Theres no direction

A steel erection to feel

Can you swallow the mist from this space

Suffer with the gun on your face

Well you can't imagine

The things that could happen this way

(chorus)

Theres no reason to cry

Anyway you won't get no reply

Cos you're alone but i love you

But not me

Does your baby face look so sad

But its the biggest thrill you've ever had

Well its funny to think of the fun

You lig with this game

So you wanna be out of your mind

Having a real good time but don't bother to choose

Between calling this good or bad (chorus) (1st verse)
(chorus)
