Freeze

It's time to take you home

It feels so early but I promised I would bring you to your door

Now our lips are numb as we walk sharing warm alcohol

That kiss tastes like summer

I hope you like the stars I stole for you

One hundred million twinkle lights in neon blue

I'll be the brightest someday, I'll be the brightest you'll see

Don't rain on my parade

It's gonna glow in the dark

I like it better when you can't keep warm

Don't ruin a perfect thing

A perfect thing

The boy on the blue moon dreams of sun

Now as the rain falls like shattered pieces of glass from the sky

We bleed like water colors and drunken pastels down the stairways

And I ask myself, why do I still pray

When will it end

And who fucking cares

I swear to God I did what I could

I practically begged you

I pretended everything was fine

A soul sacrifice, an American nightmare

I'd rather be dead

Don't rain on my parade

It's gonna glow in the dark

I like it better when you can't keep warm

Don't ruin a perfect thing

A perfect thing

The boy on the blue moon hears a nightmare in his head

I'll bet you money as you're running to the bathroom

You barely started drinking but your beauty never stopped you

You died in California by the sulfur and the sea
I guess I never should have loved you
But I do forever because you loved me
And I break my glasses as I fall in the street
If you were gonna leave this world how could it be without me
Now it's all over my tongue and still it has no taste
Because without you there is no me

There's no me at all
Sometimes love dies like a dog
So why don't we just let this one take care of itself
Don't rain on my parade
It's gonna glow in the dark
I like it better when you can't keep warm
Don't ruin a perfect thing
The boy on the blue moon dreams
I'm losing a perfect thing
