Alright here we go

Hey there friend of mine
I hope you don't mind
If I, I get a little closer to you
Move up a little closer to you

Hey there friend of mine
I use to live up the street from you
Can I move a little closer
Be a little closer to you
Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah

Hey there friend of mine
Won't you stay and have a glass of wine
No I don't have any glasses no
Just use any mug you can find
And hey there boy of mine
Oeps I didn't mean the say that
Am I making any progress
Do you think I past the big test in time
Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah

It's easier to show it out like this
Yes you better believe me
And it's easier to put it like that
It's easier to throw it like this
You better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me

Hey there friend of mine
I hope you don't mind
If I, I get up the couner
I get a little louder

Hey there love of mine
You just take a good sweet time
Cause if we go any faster
This could end up a disaster in time
Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah

And it's easier to show it out like this
Oh you should better believe me
And it's easier to put it like that
It's easier to throw it like this
You better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me

And don't you stay with me because you feel save
And don't you stay with me because you're bored
And don't you stay with me because you heart ache
And you don't want to be alone
No you don't wanna be alone

On this day if I feel like home
It feels like home

It's easier to show it out like this
Oh yes you better believe me
And it's easier to put it like that
And it's easier to throw it out like this
You should better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me

Cause it's easier to show it out like this
Hey you better believe me
And it's easier to put it like that
And it's easier to throw it out like this
You better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me dear
Yeah you better believe me
