Surprising you and others,
We elevate. We lift. We conquer.
Letting you discover, what a promise kept can offer.
Keep in touch uncover ideas left to drown no longer.
Hold your breath go under.
Rise again in loving waters.

Oh oh I, this is just a call to be true to you.
Oh oh I, flying high we fly so close, so bright, so wild.

Heating up it bubbles.
Steaming out our previous mantras.
Leaving lost our troubles,
Communicate the wish diminishing.
This goes out to lovers
Standing up embraced enamored.
Keeping feet square under looking back and forth to wonder...

Oh oh I, this is just a call to be true to you.
Oh oh I, flying high we fly so close, so bright, so wild.

Surprising you and others,
We penetrate. We lift. We conquer.
Letting you discover, a promise kept make trust these offers. Keep in touch uncover.
Ideas found they drown no longer.
Hold your breath go under. Rise again in loving waters.
