Visit "Illuminate My Skies" on MotoLyrics.com

When everything is going down
You blame me for all that is wrong
Why cant you just be honest and stay with me alot long

Forever scream in silence
Or all your echos will come back
They will hit you hard and I know that you will handle it bad

You think you're right but you are not
Its time to believe in what you've got
I'm going under suddenly Open you're eyes and let me show, that this world is more then you'll ever know
Were going under suddenly poeple pull in strings like puppet masters our friendship fell asleep

you should have dreams, it's like burning disasters
I cant believe we fell so deep

Well I need something that egnites
Before all the lights go out
So illuminate my skies, the horizon shining bright

You think you're right but you are not
it's time to believe in what you've got
I'm going under suddenly
Open your eyes and let me show,
that this world is more then you'll ever know

You should have dreams, it's like burning disasters
I cant believe we fell so deep
I know I'm not the one that I used to be
You should have dreams, it's like burning disasters
I cant believe we fell so deep
I know I'm not the one that I used to be

You think you're right but you are not
It's time to believe in what you've got
I'm going under suddenly

Suddenly my eyes has changed
And they will never stay the same
We're going under suddenly

We fell so deep, we fell so deep
We're going under suddenly
