Ain't a homewreck homewreck-eck-e-r
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-er
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-eck
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-er

I'll take you to a different place
Than you've ever been before, my baby
I'll show you we can rearrange
We can put your heart together

Follow me down this rabbit hole
I can show you love in darkness
Someone to have
Someone to hold, with me

You've been lied to
But you took him back
You said he didn't mean it and all of that
Someone like you should know better then
He burnt you once and he'll burn again

You've been lied to
You need to understand
You gotta give him up for a better man
If you've been lied to, you can come with me
I ain't a homewrecker, I know how real love feels

Ain't a homewreck homewreck-eck-e-r
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-er
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-eck
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-er

I'll take you to a different place
What other lies did he feed you, baby
You should go, if you're so convinced
By that, by him, don't you see his game?

Now it's me against you
Or rather you against me
He is somewhere in-between

He's a homewrecker, he's got bad moves
You're laughing baby 'cause you know it's true

You've been lied to, but you took him back
You said he didn't mean it and all of that
Someone like you should know better then
He burnt you once and he'll burn again

You've been lied to, you need to understand
You gotta give him up for a better man
If you've been lied to, you can come with me
I ain't a homewrecker, I know how real love feels

Ain't a homewreck homewreck-eck-e-r
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-er
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-eck
Ain't a homewreck-wreck-wreck-er

Now it's me against you
Or rather you against me
He is somewhere in-between

He's a homewrecker
He's got bad moves
You're laughing baby, 'cause you know it's true

You've been lied to
But you took him back
You said he didn't mean it and all of that
Someone like you should know better then
He burnt you once and he'll burn again

You've been lied to
You need to understand
You gotta give him up for a better man
If you've been lied to, you can come with me
I ain't a homewrecker, I know how real love feels
