Junk is what junk does to another place the facts in the hand
place the hand-me-down in a jar.
Junk is what junk does to another place the facts in the hand
place the hand-me-down in a jar.
To make it more palatable
to make it more palatable
to make it more palatable for you.
Junk is what junk becomes immune to the stink and the dull cut of butterknives scraping the burn.

To make it more palatable
to make it more palatable
to make it more palatable for you.
To make it more palatable
to make it more palatable
to make it more palatable for you.
From pain to paperclip
holding broken parts together.
From pain to paperclip
holding broken parts together.
A puppet does what a puppet is told
a puppet does what a puppet is told
a puppet does what a puppet is told to do by stringing it up and away.
