Iâ€™m not scared cause I know youâ€™re there
And I know what you say is true
When the time has come to sing the final song
Iâ€™m gonna sing it just for you!

Cause your faith is like an iron glove
Always swinging in front of my face back and forth
But never too far too reach

When I need a strong hand
And I need a strong hand every day!

When I build a castle Iâ€™ll build it on a rock
When I sow a seed Iâ€™ll sow it on good soil
When a new dawn breaks my tired body awakes
Then Iâ€™ll put the new morning into your hands
