Fuck Me I'm Sick

You are my ever living lie
My weakness wrapped upon the wheel
You the sore upon the side
The hand you hold will never heal

I am the cripple and the crime
I am the filth and first denied
This thief that shits upon your shrine
The shame that you can never hide

Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me

There's nothing in your eyes but need
Come taste this tiny tender prey
Come push me to the tiny net
You'll never give, I'll never get

I'll never get

You'll never give
I'll never get

I burn my dirty little lights
That fill my dirty little nights
Concede and crawl and criticize
And I'll fill my dirty little highs

Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me

Touch me
Touch me
Touch me
Touch me

[illegible]

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

[illegible]

Fuck me
Fuck me

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

This pig will walk on the water
This pig will walk on the sea
This pig will walk wherever he wants
Walk on me

Walk on me

Walk on me

Walk on me

Walk on me

Walk on me
