Jennifer wrestled her friend playfully to the ground
In front of the snowcone stand
And began licking at the girl's eyeballs
As if they were sugar cubes

Their bodies convulsed and flailed
With an almost seizure like intensity
At times their pale limbs seeming to shift back
And forth from one torso to the other

A crowd gathered almost immediately to watch these two Girls tie and untie their bodies like a pair of pit vipers
They were confused, or concerned
Or shocked, or aroused, or all of the above

But no one dared interfere with the performance Jennifer's long ashen hair hung down concealing the girls face
Like a curtain around a hospital bed
No one had any idea

That the girls eyes were revolving under her ruby tongue
This is disgusting, it's pornography
Exclaimed a pasty slut white woman in a fur coat Vanilla ice cream smeared across her double chin like a money shot

Counting a balding professor type in his Mid forties, his left hand stuffed crassly down the Front of his pants no, no, no
This is beautiful, this is art
