Keep your promise to me tonight, tonight.
Or Have your eyes betrayed you, oh tonight, oh tonight.

You sell you secrets to me for a price, for a price,
You run your blade right through me, my fear dies,
leaving your's alive.
And though your lips pursue me, in the shadow of your eyes,
Love and fear collide

Not You...

It's not too late. Can we open this gate?
Girl I've been here before, I've walked cross these floors.
It's not too late. Can we open this gate?
Girl I've been here before, I've walked cross these floors.

My fears have won,
What are you running from? 3x
My tears run,
What are you running from? 3x
