"Long Gone"

And the fires almost dead
Well, there's this ringin' in my head
Like a runaway train that's ridin' through my mind

Tried to nurse me back to health
For a reason I can't tell
Yeah, it's clearer now I stole you [unverified] could sell [unverified]

Yeah, don't try to save me I'm long gone
Yeah, don't try to save me I'm not all I thought I was
And the path, we take, where it's you I hope to break
And I can't see why this time

Now it chills me to the bone
Yeah, those lovely nights they should despise
That I let you down, now leave me here alone

Yeah, don't try to save me I'm long gone
Yeah, don't try to save me I'm not all I thought I was
And the path, we take, where it's you I hope to break
And I can't see why this time

Yeah, don't try to save me I'm long gone
Yeah, don't try to save me I'm not all I thought I was
And the path, we take, where it's you I hope to break
And I can't see why this time

No, I don't wanna let you down
No, I don't wanna bring you down
My time is runnin' out
