This day became a night
And he went down
And left behind the light

And couldn't ask for help
A lonely store
To fill it to himself

Couldn't stop the fight
A bloody knife
He used upon himself
As he hangs on for his life
Can he let go
And let her leave tonight?

He never shed a tear
At his grandfather's coffin
Oh no, not I
He never gave love
That others should've gotten
Oh no, not I

And muddy rivers run
Right downstream
Towards the sailin' sun

And you shut out everyone
Do you want her to know?
You're letting it go
She's kicking the goals

He never shed a tear
At his grandfather's coffin
Oh no, not I
He never gave the love
That others should've gotten
Oh no, not I

He never shed a tear
At his grandfather's coffin
Oh no, not I
He never gave the love

That others should've gotten
Oh no, not I

See them come,
See them fall
God's children one and all
Fall along the line

What was one
Fatal flaw
Come on in forget 'em all
Oh, lift me

Oh Christ
In my life
Settle life
Make all my dreams come true

And Christ
In my life
Settle life
Now, make all my dreams come true
Settle life
